

Updating your account details

Keeping your account details up to date is a simple process that is up to users to do.

Log in to your account online and the first screen you see is the Account Overview screen. You can also see this at any time when you are logged in, by clicking on the words 'Your Account' at the top right of the NZ Bulbs web site page, next to the silhouette of a head and shoulders.

You can view or update all the following under the different headings:

Loyalty Points

You can check your loyalty points balance here

Update Account Profile

Update your contact name and postal address here. Your postal address is considered to be your delivery address as well unless you have a different address entered in your delivery address book (see below).

Delivery Address Book

You can set up a number of different delivery addresses here, perhaps for sending gifts, or if your own delivery address is not the same as your postal address. If your delivery address is the same as your postal address, you do not need to enter it again here, your postal address is the default delivery address.
